

Out On the Streets

Ringo Starr

I woke up this evenin' and my head was reelin'
Nothing was happenin', I had no feelin'
I knew that I had to be out on the streets
Out on the streetGot in my car, lookin' for action
Blew right down broadway, got no reaction
Two cops were following me out on the street
Out on the streetGot out of my car and I started walkin'
I met some ladies and we started talkin'
That's why I'm so glad to be out on the street
Out on the streetI'm spending my money, taking my chances
Going to clubs, doin' new dances
Watchin' the fire on my feet out on the street
Out on the streetWell, night time is fadin', I jumped off my motor Somebody told me to try the Dakota
They're just like two people you'll meet out on the street
Out on the streetThey're just like vini* and me
Out on the street
Whoa! out on that street!Hey, I was walkin' down the street and you know what this guy said
He says,
