Haunted

Midnattsol

Haunted and drifted into a corner no open door in sight circling around in a blizzard painfully rifted scarsSurrender your sword! rescue your soul!Despondent 'cause I have given signs of unthoughtful crimes an act against my own heaven forgive me for sins of hateForced to create a struggle will you ever understand? the resolution of a jealous action the sword was not made by my handWaiting for an instant answer waiting for the truth floundering in my river searching like a foolSurrender your sword! rescue your soul!Sleepless nights was it worth it?
detest the fake role of grace I'm riding an endless journey insanity: you're never safe!
