Here I Am

Stacy Barthe

When will the daylight come?
When will the daylight come?
Will the daylight come?Got interrupted
She's so destructive to my [?] on her hands
Only time she having time is when she's drunk
Waiting for the light, sun don't ever come
If that's life, is that life worth living?
'Cause last night I swore it was the last timeSaid I wouldn't do it again
Here I am
Said I wouldn't do it again
Here I amIt's my pity party I got around to
I got all dressed up but nobody showed
So I dance by myself, drink by myself
Pass out in my clothes on the floor all aloneSaid I wouldn't do it again
Here I am
Said I wouldn't do it again
Here I am, here I am
Right back in my [?] again
Right back where I started then
Said I wouldn't do it again
Here I amNow watch me as I drink my pain away
From the rum in this bottle
Drink my pain away
From the rum in this bottleSaid I wouldn't do it again
Said I wouldn't do it again
Here I am
I said I wouldn't do it again
I said I wouldn't do it again
No, no, no, but here I am
Here I am, here I am now
Here I am, here I am
Here I am

Songwriters
GIBSON, COREY / STEPHENS, JOHN / BARTHE, STACY / CAMPBELL, JOI / WOODARD, JESSE / HO, JAMES RYANPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Universal Music Publishing Group, Royalty Network

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/