

You Weren't Really There at All

Jimmy Arnold

Your wreck-less heart
I'm sure we're better off apart
I can't hide the tears now, all that's left are wasted years I, I always needed you, needed you
You weren't really there at all
now, on my own still this heart calls no place home
All that we choose are the excuses when we lose Now, I'm all set but I'm still living my regrets I, I always wanted you, wanted you
You weren't really there at all
now, on my own
still this heart calls no place home
