

Perennial Dreams

Edenbridge

how could i ever see this blueprint of reality spoiling for a fight i left no stone unturned for ever and one day the gale force in my heart will stay and i don't care a straw about the lessons learned [pre-chorus] free i can hear this haunting melody ever since the spirits rose in me [chorus] the shadows of darkness or the light of the world leaving those energetic streams a soldier of fortune or a fancier at all keeping on for perennial dreams will this tide ever turn before my restless heart will burn the elfstruck time elapses to the eventide it is a game of skill and it is playing with your will the floatlight marks the harbour there it is my guide [pre-chorus] [chorus] [bridge] the spangled heaven's gleam a neverending stream will arise in my perennial dream [chorus]
