Crazy Glue

Jessica Sanchez

If all the stars fell from the sky
The ocean and rivers gone dry
The sun and the moon, both ran away with their lightI feel the holes on your heart
Unbreak the strings on your guitar
Together we're one
Nothing can tear us apartI'll be there, even in the darkest moments
I'll be there, foreverGonna hold on to you, like crazy glue
I'm gonna hold on to you, like crazy glueNo matter when
I don't never wanna lose you
If that's the last thing I do
I'll hold on to you
Like crazy glueWhen I'm with you I'm complete
You're like the last puzzle piece
Everyday, you always say to me"I'll be there, even in the darkest moments
I'll be there, forever"Gonna hold on to you, like crazy glue
I'm gonna hold on to you, like crazy glueNo matter when
I don't never wanna lose you
If it's the last thing I do
I'll hold on to you
Like crazy glueI want you to know
I'll never let go
No, never
Some things are meant to stay foreverI'm gonna hold on to you, like crazy glue
I'm gonna hold on to you, like crazy glueNo matter when
I don't never wanna lose you
If that's the last thing I do
I'll hold on to you
I'll hold on to you
Like crazy glueOhhh.Like crazy glue
