

So This Is Silence

And Also The Trees

The boy walked round the jagged rocks caught between ideals and desires
He sinks into oblivion
And there was silence, as he sat so still Averted face stares at the floor So this is silence
So this is silence Listen, the sound of laughter
The frenzy and blind violence of fear Alone again with light and silence Alone again with the skies
