

Pale Blue Eyes

Joseph Arthur

Sometime I feel so happy
Sometime I feel so sad
Sometime I feel so happy but mostly just make me mad
Baby you just make me mad
Lay the arms, you pale blue eyes
Lay the arms, you pale blue eyes
Though you thought that you
Though in you as every thing Could't keep, I've happend couldn't keep
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
If I could make this the world will be strange
The pure is what I see
I put you in the mirror, I put it front of me
I put it front of me
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
Skip a life completly, stop beeing a coward
She said money is like a sintagma It last but can't stand up, down for you is all
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
It was good what we did yersterday
And I do it once again
But the fact that you are married only proves you're my best friedns
But it's truly, truly sad Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
Lay your arms, you pale blue eyes
