Maybe

Nat & Alex Wolff

Watch from afar,
You were here only seconds ago
Running your hands through your hair
My eyes glazed over I'm gazing,
And I am now noticed,
I know we could be closer
Maybe there's a reason
I stand in your presence,
I see you're happy I can tell
Maybe, this is living, staring, without moving our signs are still vital,
we're alive

You are so beautiful
I can't control myself
I cannot speak, wouldn't dare Face so Intense filled with tears Cry a sea we can swim in
You know I will find you

Maybe there's a reason
I stand in your presence,
I see you're happy I can tell
Maybe, this is living, staring,
without moving our signs are still vital,
we're alive

I don't count you as a stranger Though we never even spoke
I don't see no harm or danger
That this love might evoke

Maybe there's a reason
I stand in your presence,
I see you're happy I can tell
Maybe, this is living, staring,
without moving our signs are still vital,
we're alive

Maybe there's a reason
I stand in your presence,
I see you're happy I can tell
Maybe, this is living, staring,
without moving our signs are still vital,
we're alive

Maybe, there's a reason we're alive
