

Nights B4 You

Siya

All the nights I spent wit'chu
All the nights I spent before you
All the nights I spent wit'chu
All the nights I spent before you
That don't mean nothin at all..nothin, no
That don't mean nothin at all no no no no no
Oooo ahh

You don't come around no more
Shit, you don't even call my phone
How was i supposed to know
That you was out here on your own
You said a love for me was all real from drop, but I got it Gave you everything how the fuck you gonna be, I was doubting.. for a new love on my time, on my dime.. you must be out your mind

All the nights I spent wit'chu
All the nights I spent before you
All the nights I spent wit'chu
All the nights I spent before you
That don't mean nothin at all, nothin.. no
That don't mean nothin at all no no no no noo
That don't mean nothin'

Yeah, I had a hard time gettin thru to you cause you was jaded
I was here for us but you were slept for me so I waited-for you to say to me this wasn't it for you, I mean lately,
I take the blame for you & that's crazy
Got a nigga' feelin' like I really let you play me, damn
Whole bullshit am i paying for, yeah
What kinda fool do you take me for, I mean I hate you more but one things for sure; I'm good
I know you know you lost me
You can never come back no mo'

All the nights I spent wit'chu
All the nights I spent before you
All the nights I spent wit'chu
All the nights I spent before you
That don't mean nothing at all, nothing no
That don't mean nothing at all no no no no noo

That don't mean nothin'
