

PDA

Scott Helman

Your mamma was a doctor
Your mamma was a fire alarm
Eastern European
Gonna miss you when you're gone
Cos you know I like the view
Every single time I look at you There easy kinda proper
Is she like a soldier girl?
But I mean you're softer
Why you looking so concerned?
I know you don't like PDA
But just for now I think that it's okay
So hold me close and kiss me now in the fake Grand Central Hair tied up with a broken pencil Couple next to ya
Says go get a hotel room
Guess they never felt this way
So disapproving
They don't like what we're doing
We don't have no time to waste
It's just a little PDA
It's just a little PDA Kiss you in the bedroom
Then you set the world on fire
Put aside your cocoon
It's like I'm just another guy
Because you're so preoccupied
Why you think that stranger's gonna mind?
If you come a little closer
Forget about your suitcase babe
Cos you know when we're older
We're going to laugh about today
Soon we'll be so far away
And I'm just gonna have to sublimate
If you can say it Write a letter, kinda confidential
Sign your name with a broken pencil Couple next to ya
Says go get a hotel room
Guess they never felt this way
So disapproving
They don't like what we're doing
We don't have no time to waste
It's just a little PDA

It's just a little PDA
So baby I just need, a memory to sustain me
'cause I get so crazy worried that you're going to replace me,
So show me with an action, that on the train you won't get plastered and hook up with some model slash actor in the bathroom,
All that I need, is confirmation by making it seem in the station before they call tell the children to look away,
We'll be on the train, rolling away, rolling away.
Couple next to ya
Says go get a hotel room
Guess they never felt this way
So disapproving
They don't like what we're doing
We don't have no time to waste,
It's just a little PDA
Couple next to ya
Says go get a hotel room
Guess they never felt this way
So disapproving
They don't like what we're doing
We don't have no time to waste
It's just a little PDA
It's just a little PDA
