In the Early Hours

Donald Cumming

On a water fount
at the edge of time
I'll be sittin' there You'll be on my mindIt don't matter if you were wrong or I was right
I wanna look at you tonight
I wanna look at you tonightIn the early hours of another day
All the pretty flowers withering awayIt don't matter if everything will be alright
I wanna look at you tonight
I wanna look at you tonight'Cause in your face I see all of eternity this moment I'm locked into your eyes
I watch the centuries go byIn a restaurant you come through the door tell me what you want and I'll make it yoursIt don't matter if I was so wrong
you were so right
I wanna look at you tonight 4x
Oh oh oh ohWhoa whoa whoa whoa whoa 4x
