Brad

If there is, if there is, if there is
If there is, if there isIf there is anything you need
    You can get anything for free
    Out of the darkness comes a tree
    Even out everything you see and rise
And rise, and riseIf you ever feel the need to hide
    Go with the honest answer inside
    You can tell anyone you find to rise
    To rise, to rise, to rise, to rise
To rise, to rise, to rise, to riseIf there is
    If there is
    If there is
