

Playin' In the Dirt

Robert Cray

Now, you know that I'm married
And baby, so are you
But right now we're not thinking
Past this little rendezvous We both know what's gonna happen
Four people gonna get hurt
'Cause it's bound to rub off on us
When we're playing in the dirt You'll probably lose your husband
I know I'll lose my wife
You'd think that we'd know better
At this point in our lives So we might as well enjoy it
Take it for what it's worth
'Cause we're gonna get some on us
When we're playing in the dirt It's the same old common story
It's happening all around
Ain't no doubt about it
One more ship is going down There ain't no escaping
All the troubles on this Earth
We're gonna come up muddy, muddy, muddy
When we're playing in the dirt

Songwriters

AMY, CRAY Published by

Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>