

Mental

Skru

On this lonely stretch of solitude
I'm thinking 'bout the things that I never do
 All the promises that I made to you
Well, they're just words, they're only words
 It took so long for me to recognize
 All this confidence that I couldn't find
I used to dim my light, so you could shine
 And that's what hurts, it really hurts
 I wanna do everything right
 But everything's going wrong
 I wanna feel heaven on earth
 But nothing ever lasts that long
 Baby, I'm goin' mental
 So much potential
I can't stand to watch it withering away
 It's out of control now
 It's getting old now
 And I can't afford to waste another day
Well, dust keeps piling up on the window sill
Man, if you don't know by now, I guess you never will
 But there's no benefit in standing still
 Not for you, no, no, and not for me
 But I wanna make everything work
 Something's just gotta give
 I gotta start putting me first
 It's killing me the way it is
 Baby, I'm goin' mental
 So much potential
I can't stand to watch it withering away
 It's out of control now
 It's getting old now
 And I can't afford to waste another day
 I wanna do everything right
 But everything's going wrong
 I wanna feel heaven on earth
 And nothing ever lasts that long
 Baby, I'm goin' mental
 So much potential
I can't stand to watch it withering away

It's out of control now
It's getting old now
And I can't afford to waste another day
