What Happened to the World That Day?

Tower Of Power

I remember lonely days
Having no one to talk to
Drifting slowly from place to place
Never knowing just what to do
But I'm not lonely now
My outlook has been altered now
I've changed my attitude
I feel mellow inside
What happened to the world (that day)
You came into my life (to stay)
Forever ever in my arms
Day by dayA steady stream
Of happiness as they come
Facing changes as they come
For that always tomorrow with you
So close to me
Having all the faith that I'll need
To face the world outside
With all that I am
A little here
Ooh, and a little there
Patiently building our dream
Coming home at six o'clockI can just feel the warmth of love
A guiding light
My hope my joy my reason
For living this life I lead
You're all that I need
What happened to the world (that day)
You came into my life (to stay)
Oh yeah
Yeah baby
(What happened to the world)
I remember it well yeah
(What happened to the world)It was on a special day baby
(What happened to the world)
Oh sweet mama
(What happened to the world)
Was you
Oh baby

That's what happened on the special day
Ooh
You come on in
And took control baby
