The Beloved And The Hatred

Caliban

Where is your, where is your, where is your love?The smaller the keys, bigger the locks
Closure of dorms for the hatred, pick a key and watch
Sesame open, just meaningless wordsA daring mixture of shelter and temptation
The one who dares will gain the blame
Lines web into my heart to tear it slightly apartWhere's your love? Where's your love?
Where's your love? Where's yourThe smaller the keys, bigger the locks
Closure of dorms for the hatred, pick a key and watch
Sesame open, just meaningless words, just meaningless wordsTell me, where's your love, tell me, where's your heart
Don't look back to that start, where's your love?A daring mixture of shelter and temptation
The one who dares will gain the blame
Lines web into my heart to tear it slightly apartWhere is your love? Where is your heart?
Where is your love? Where is your heart?Tell me, where's your love, tell me, where's your heart
Don't look back to that start, where's your love?
Tell me, where's your love, tell me, where's your heart
Don't look back to that start, where's your love?A daring mixture of shelter and temptation
The one who dares will gain the blame
Lines web into my heart to tear it slightly apartWhere is your love? Where is your heart?
Where is your love?
