A Town Called Hypocrisy

Lostprophets

Can you take this broken boy
And put the pieces back as one?
Though he has all of his toys
He is never having fun
Because it's not enough
Now we're growing up
We are giving up
We are moving on
Because it's not enough
We were growing up
We are giving up
And I won't hear what you say so
Save your sympathy
Who do you think you're fooling?
Everything is dead
Now you welcome me to a town called hypocrisy
Save your sympathy
Who do you think you're fooling?
Everything is dead
Now you welcome me to a town called hypocrisy
Town called hypocrisy
Can you take this lonely girl?
I pick her up from off the ground
'Cause there's no pride, to be found
When you follow sheep around
And no future here, no future for us in this town
Because it's not enough
Now we're growing up
We are giving up
We are moving on
Because it's not enough
We were growing up
We are giving up
And I won't hear what you say so
Save your sympathy
Who do you think you're fooling?
Everything is dead
Now you welcome me to a town called hypocrisy
Save your sympathy

Who do you think you're fooling?
Everything is dead
Now you welcome me to a town called hypocrisy
Because it's not enough
Now we're growing up
We are giving up
We are moving on
Because it's not enough
We were growing up
We are giving up
And I won't hear what you say so..
Save your sympathy
Who do you think you're fooling?
Everything is dead
Now you welcome me to a town called hypocrisy
Save your sympathy
Who do you think you're fooling?
Everything is dead
Now you welcome me to a town called hypocrisy
