

You've Ruined Me (Live At the Living Room)

Norah Jones

You've ruined me now
But I liked it but I'm ruined
Do you have a plan?
'Cause I'm in your hands You've ruined me now
Though I liked it now I'm ruined
I had no choice
When I heard your voice I know you said
Can't be misled
Now I'm the one
Whose face is red You've ruined me now
Though I liked it now I'm ruined
Your chocolate eyes
Like buttons of lies You've ruined me now
Though I liked it now I'm ruined
I'm trying to part
With what's in my heart You've ruined me and how
I thought I liked it but I'm ruined
My whole world's now
Turned upside down I heard me say I'm going away
But now I write you everyday
You heard me say I'm going away
But I'm on the floor outside your door You've ruined me now
You've ruined me now You've ruined me now
But I liked it but I'm ruined
Do you have a plan?
'Cause I'm in your hands
