

Holding You

Novicane

Yeah
I can't remember why we fell apart
Even how the arguments all start
I got this crazy thought running through my head
You keep insisting on convincing me that nothing's changed
And keep on telling me, I'm trippin' but it's not a game
'Cause something's different when I'm in it, it don't feel the same
Keep on picturing another nigga been holding you
I feel somebody's been touchin' you
In fact I know somebody's been kissin' you
Do you wanna tell me who's been lovin' you, lovin' you, holding you?
I don't know why I've been trusting you
Only did what I'm supposed to do
Don't know how I've been such a fool for lovin' you
It never really matter too much to me
I guess I was too blind and I could not see
The message in the words that I heard you say
That you're unhappy and you think you need some time away
These things just happen but I know they don't happen that often
I try to understand me 'cause I love you
But I keep on thinking that another nigga been holding you
I feel somebody's been touching you
In fact I know somebody's been kissing you
Do you wanna tell me who's been lovin' you, lovin' you, holding you?
I don't know why I've been trusting you
Only did what I'm supposed to do
I don't know how I've been such a fool for loving you, yeah
C'mon, pick up the phone
Hello
Yeah, what you doin'
Sittin' here thinking about you, boo
Oh yeah?
Yeah, that's right
Did you think about me when you was with your girlfriends creeping?
You was at the Club straight freaking
What am I supposed to do
Tell me how could you've been thinking about me
I saw him in the bedroom baby
I'm looking through the window, don't you play me

Baby won't you tell the truth 'cause I ain't trippin'
And I know that nigga been holding you
I feel somebody's been touching you
In fact I know somebody's been kissin' you
Do you wanna tell me who's been lovin' you, lovin' you, holding you?
I don't know why I've been trusting you
Only did what I'm supposed to do
I don't know how I've been such a fool for lovin' you
Why, why? Tell me why, why, why
Oh why, why, why, why, why
Tell me why, why, why, holding you babe, yeah
Should've been trusting you, yeah oh
I was a fool, yes, I was, yes I was, yeah oh
I won't be a fool, no more, no more baby, yeah yeah
