

Shine Acoustic

Muse

Who cares for the life we've earned?
Someone sold all the truth you yearned
Remember when you used to shine
And had no fear or sense of time
When it creeps up on you
You can't cry now, there's nothing to feel
No one has noticed our loneliness
Remember when you used to tease

And made us scream eternal joy
I believed that you'll always be here
'Coz once you promised a life with no fear
Please don't break my ideals
And say what's fake was always real
I was the one, now I'm gone
Take me back again
