

His Will

Destiny Praise

are you in bondage to the status of nice things addicted to the attention and the compliments they bring feeling the weight of growing debt with each bill "that's not his will, that's not his will"

if that's not you then maybe this one is on point you still need a drink or you gotta smoke one joint to get through the pain of all the heartache that you feel
"that's not his will", "that's not his will"

1st special chorus
it's not a trial
it's not a test
GOD wants for you- his best but not until you submit to his will do you need validation wrapped up in false love so you sneak out-- to the strip club knowing that nothing there can never be forreal

"that's not his will- "that's not his will"

maybe you think that you will find it in someone so you sleep around hoping each time that you're done but that one is not found and you're still trying to heal
"that's not his will, "that's not his will"

it seems unfair
it so much stress
GOD wants for you- his best
but not until you submit to his will he heard your crying tears he know your silent fears he wants to just renew his relationship with you!

don't be afraid of facing everything in sight even the guilt- wrapped up in pride GOD will step in but he's waiting until you're in will-your in his will don't you give up don't settle for less

GOD wants for you -his best

JESUS IS WAITING to reveal his plan for you for real but he won't help us till you start to submit to his w-i-l-l, w-i-l-l, w-i-l-l

THE END!!!
