Ascension

Flatbush Zombies

I have ascended, I'm trying to be better than God
The fuck am I saying?
I have ascended, I'm trying to be better than God
What the fuck am I saying? I ain't even enter my prime
Taking over the world, we'll do it one day at a time
Time is an illusion, I think that I'm losing my mind
I have ascended, I'm trying to be better than God
What the fuck am I saying? I ain't even enter my prime
Taking over the world, we'll do it one day at a time
Time is an illusion, I think that I'm losing my mind
You might've, heard that I got touched like Midas
I might just use pliers to pull teeth don't bite us
That bites us, red dot, head shot
Kick rocks or bite dust don't like us then try us
Your family get tied up your wifey she tied up cause she fucked the both us so much swear that probably use that gun on yo' holster and bang yourself now you know cancel you're over
Jump off the ol' block, chip on my shoulders
See pain in my eyes, burden on shoulders why God move the sun without burning his shoulders?
I'm cobra, venomous cobra
Clutch on my weapon raise from waist to shoulder
Level you looking disheveled I'm on a new level the Devil conducts all his tests in the ghetto
Go 'head and contest with a rebel roll heavy with metal
I'm reading your mental cause
I have ascended, I'm trying to be better than God
What the fuck am I saying? I ain't even enter my prime
Taking over the world, we'll do it one day at a time
Time is an illusion, I think that I'm losing my mind
I have ascended, I'm trying to be better than God
What the fuck am I saying? I ain't even enter my prime
Taking over the world, we'll do it one day at a time
Time is an illusion, I think that I'm losing my mindYou are now listening to FBZ Radio satellite broadcasting through all dimensions
Get ready to hear the soothing sounds of bliss
Kick back, and light a fat joint, and enjoy the rest of the Odyssey
Stay tuned and later we'll be taking some calls
