

Babygirl

Musiq Soulchild

So fine baby, smelled so nice when you walked on by, yeah Pardon me my darling but do you have a second
Just so I can tell you how you caught my full attention
Now how is it that you look so well put together?
Flawless as can be, it just doesnt get no better Hey babygirl why dont you come home with me
And let me show you what some good loving means
'Cause I got so much love inside
And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl Oh yeah, your bodys picture perfect and there aint a brick thats missing
You look like your mama raised you on them grits and chicken
Now I know that you heard this like probably all the time
But if you come with me, Im gon' make it worth your while Hey babygirl why dont you come home with me
And let me show you what some good loving means
'Cause I got so much love inside
And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl Babygirl, babygirl, babygirl, babygirl
(Dont you walk away from me, no baby)
Babygirl, babygirl, babygirl, babygirl
(Hey girl) Hey babygirl why dont you come home with me
And let me show you what some good loving means
'Cause I got so much love inside
And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl Hey babygirl why dont you come home with me
And let me show you what some good loving means
'Cause I got so much love inside
And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl Babygirl, oh no no babygirl
[Incomprehensible]
