It's Not Me

Shiloh

You say that I should watch my mouth, that everything is not a joke
I'm not the kind to hold my tongue I'd rather speak my mind than...Choke on the words that you want me to say
Smile as the honesty fades away
Say the right words, be the good girl
Play along, is that what you want?Honestly it's not me, it's not me, it's not me
Can't you see what you want me to be, what you want me to be
It's just not meYou say that I should let it go, and break the key to lock the door
Just close my eyes to what I know, but I can't take it any moreThan the words that you want me to say
Why let my honesty fade away
Say the right words, be the good girl
Play along, is that what you want?Honestly it's not me, it's not me, it's not me
Can't you see what you want me to be, what you want me to be
It's just not meSo choke on the words that you want me to say
Smile as your honesty fades away
Say the right words, be the good girl
Play along, if that's what you wantHonestly it's not me, it's not me, it's not me
Can't you see what you want me to be, what you want me to be
It's just not me
