

From the Morning

Andrea Corr

(originally by Nick Drake)

A day once dawned, and it was beautiful

A day once dawned from the ground

Then the night she fell

And the air was beautiful

The night she fell all around.

So look see the days

The endless colored ways

And go play the game that you learned

From the morning.

And now we rise

And we are everywhere

And now we rise from the ground

And see she flies

And she is everywhere

See she flies all around

So look see the sights

The endless summer nights

And so play the game that you learned

From the morning

So look see the sights

The endless summer nights

And so play the game that you learned

From the morning
