

I Like to Keep Myself in Pain

Kelly Hogan

I like to keep myself in pain
Even when the sun is high
Shining on the olive trees

Theres still a shadow in my eyesAnd that shadow must be yours
Falling all across the plains

Ive got your wreckage in my heart, so
I like to keep myself in painIn the quiet night I sleep
To the sweet cascading rain

Then your voices come to haunt me, so

I like to keep myself in painOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOHHHHHHHHHHHHHH YeeeaaaahhhhhhI like to keep myself in pain

Its not conscious I just do
Must be something that I learned

From all my time with youWhen people ask me where you are
I say dont ask me that again
Even if I told the truth this time

I wouldnt know how to beginPains the only thing you left me
If I let it go, then I dont know who I am
In my own brainIt keeps me alive

Ooooh-oooh
It keeps me alive
Ooooh-oooh
It keeps me alive
So

I like to keep myself in pain
