You Gotta Love That

Neal McCoy

Fresh off the farm, just out of school
Face of an angel and nobody's fool
Turquoise boots, Atlanta Braves cap
Denim and lace, you gotta love thatShe rolled into town, dreams in a sack
Old guitar in a blue Pontiac
She's taken a vow, she ain't turning back
She knows what she wants and you gotta love thatLong way from home, white picket fence
She turned down a ring from her old boyfriend
Didn't take a dime from even her dad
She's out on her own and you gotta love thatShe rolled into town, dreams in a sack
Old guitar in a blue Pontiac
She's taken a vow, she ain't turning back
She knows what she wants and you gotta love thatShe's tender and tough
There's a world behind those innocent eyes
Since she was a girl
She's been waiting for the day she can spread her wings and flyShe rolled into town, dreams in a sack
Old guitar in a blue Pontiac
She's taken a vow, she ain't turning back
She knows what she wants and you gotta love thatShe rolled into town, dreams in a sack
Old guitar in a blue Pontiac
She's taken a vow, she ain't turning back
She knows what she wants and you gotta love that Man, you gotta love that
