

Second Chance

Showoff

As your heart engulfs mine time will speak unspoken words.
And as true love is hard to find, desperate tears fall from my eyes.
And you want to go on your own.
And Tomorrow you'll need me.
Every time you go away (3X) my heart breaks.
And as distance becomes clear, shadows cast their memories.
And as true love is what I fear, you're love brings me to my knees.
And the first time that I saw you I was burning with desire.
And the last time that I saw you, you put out the fire.
