The Cross I Wear

Sam Lewis

Well I got heart full of lust that scares me
And I got a soul of sin so be wary
And my dreams are a sinnerâ€™s delight
And theyâ€™re keeping me awake at night
If by tomorrow ainâ€™t nothing changed, I wonâ€™t care
Cause my worries are in a cross I wear
Yea my worries are in a cross I wear
Well if my thoughts make you feel overwhelmed
Iâ€™ll try my best to keep them all to myself
Though my love is seldom given in vane
Itâ€™ll make you wish you never knew my name
Sometimes we give and get nothing back
Life ainâ€™t fair
But my worries are in a cross I wear
Yea my worries are in a cross I wear

We donâ€™t have to walk alone
It was you and me who rode away that stone
This ainâ€™t a song to hear the angels sing
Sinners come and hear my guitar ring
I know one day we will all overcome
But that battle is far from being won
Well glory glory, glory have to lay loose
Iâ€™m thanking all but I canâ€™t seem to come true
But when the sky, come falling down, Iâ€™ll just stand
Cause my worries are in a cross I wear
Yea my worries are in a cross I wear
Oh my worries are in a cross I wear
Yea my worries are in a cross I wear
