Levitate

Morbin

Feel heavy
Once felt it hard
Question an answer
For a thousand days
Give birth to the earth
Then let it drift away
Open and flow
Just swinging forever
Making love to the ground
Because it just feels better
It ain't easy
Drink it in
Think a while, spit
There's both shining and darkness
Yet they share a day
Was there a man on a cross
Or was it just a fake?
Even in shame
You can't hide your growth
Though the butterfly flies
He's sinking like a stone
The killing sun
It hurts my eyes and comes hard
Onto my skin
And as I find shade
From tree to tree, I live to learn
To dig down deep
I feel the pain
And love the hurt, I don't complain
Trancing in the grass
Suck it off the world
When you're full of [unverified] shrug
Feel fortunate
Then go where levitation lives
Where aggravation grows
Where sleeping's too hard
On the thinking bone
Intensity is what I need
To suffer for the pleasure

It's heat, hard, life and death
Living all together
In a small room
Full of me and my friends
Trying to find the means
To justify the end
