Declare Your War

Throwdown

This is a war
So youve gotta stay strong and rise above
And never let the motherfuckers tear you away from what you love
Gotta fight back and reclaim whats truly yours
Take revenge on the world and declare your fucking war
Your war
Stay gold
Stay true to yourself and your friends and never let go
You want a piece of my fucking time?
Well back up and back off
Get in back of the line
You want a piece of my fucking mind?
Well fuck you
Fuck you
Stay gold
Stay true to yourself and your friends and never let go
You want a piece of my fucking time?
Well back up and back off
Get in back of the line
You want a piece of my fucking mind?
Well fuck you
Stay gold
Never let go
