

There Once Was a Man Called S.O.

Thomas Samuel Orr

There once was a man called S.O. and we went and put him in the White House
And we all listened to S.O. 'till the day that S.O. died
Then along came another S.O. to fill the others shoes
Now we all listen to S.O. and I'm busy singing the blues
Oh What's with all the S.O.s? Come on give me a break
We don't want no more S.O.s
How many S.O.s can we take?
