

Civilised

Pitchshifter

I don't understand, no, I don't understand
Excuse me
I don't understand, no, I don't understand
Excuse me Why everything's so lame?
Why everyone's so wasted?
Why everything's so tame?
Why everyone's so sordid? It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies I don't understand, no, I don't understand
Excuse me
I don't understand, no, I don't understand
Excuse me Why everything's so lame?
Why everyone's so wasted?
Why everything's so tame?
Why everyone's so sordid? It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies No cheating, no lies, it's got to be
No cheating, no lies, it's got to be
No cheating, no lies, it's got to be
No cheating, no lies It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
Civilised societies
You got nothing for me It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
It's got to be your civilised societies
You got nothing for me
