Forgiveness

Christine McVie

Most of the time my head is spinning
Other things on my mind
But once in a while
I'm thrown back into that dark place
Where you reside(Trapped)In the middle
Of a lousy love affair
(Hurt)Just a little
Johnny says come around if you dareI tried to reach out so many times
But you were simply never there
I blame myself for my own pain
My misery and despair(Trapped)In the middle
Of a lousy love affair
(Hurt)Just a little
Johnny says come around if you dareI forgive you
And the spell that you cast
And all that loneliness
Well that's a thing of the past
Yes I forgive you
And the ties that bind
All that emptiness
Yes I've left it all behind(Trapped)In the middle (Hurt)Just a littleI forgive you
And the spell that you cast
And all that loneliness
Well that's a thing of the past
Yes I forgive you
And the ties that bind
All that emptiness
Yes I've left it all behindFor the spell that you cast
And the ties that bind
