

Must Be Nice

Frankie Rose and The Outs

Must be nice
Having someone who understands the life you live
Must be nice
Having someone who's slow to take and quick to give
Must be nice
Having someone who sticks around when the rough times get thick
Someone who's smile is bright enough
To make the projects feel like a mansion
Must be nice
Having someone who loves you despite your faults
Must be nice
Having someone who talks the talk but also walks the walk
Must be nice
Having someone who understands that a thug has feelings too
Someone who loves you for sho'
You just remember to never let 'em go
Even when your hustling days are gone
She'll be by your side still holding on
Even when those 20's stop spinning
And all those gold-digging women disappear, she'll still be here
Must be nice
Having someone you can come home to from a long day of work
Must be nice
Having someone you don't have to show they know exactly where it hurts

Must be nice
Having someone who trusts you despite what they've heard
Someone as mighty as a lion but still as gentle as a bluebird
Must be nice
Having someone you don't have to tell you don't want to be alone
Must be nice
Having someone you can grow old with until God calls y'all home
Must be nice
Having someone who understands that a thug has feelings too
Someone who loves you for sho'
You never let 'em go
Even when your hustling days are gone
She'll be by your side still holding on
Even when those 20's stop spinning

And all those gold-digging women disappear, she'll still be here
Even when your hustling days are gone
She'll be by your side still holding on
And even when those 20's stop spinning
And all those gold-digging women disappear, she'll still be here
Even when your hustling days are gone
She'll be by your side still holding on
And even when those 20's stop spinning
And all those gold-digging women disappear, she'll still be here

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>