Graveyard

Blue Rodeo

Well I love these nervous breakdownsAnd I love these new skinsAnd I love that you were brave enough
To sleep with all my friendsAnd I love these messy ends
And I love these new beginningsAnd I love that you keep pounding
On this drum inside my headAnd the once and future destinyOf your self fulfilling prophesyNo longer the enemy
You accept it willinglyAnd all the demons are saintsAnd the saints I'll never trustIn the graveyard of my heart
So let's go kick over tombstonesIn the graveyard of my heart
