

Tunnel of Love

Sunnyboys

Why is my happiness gone
When I don't understand, you
I only know I must settle back down
And let life pass me through and through Well I'm waking up now
Waking up to all the bad in you
I get hurt, I fall down
I need someone to hold me back from the tunnel
From the tunnel of my love
Ooh from the tunnel of my love I see the time in your life is going to be soon
When I'm not around
Do you find that when we touch
A tingle goes from your neck to your throat to your spine. Well I'm waking up now
Waking up to all the bad in you
I get hurt, I fall down
I need someone to hold me back from the tunnel
From the tunnel of my love
Ooh from the tunnel of my love Well I'm waking up now
Waking up to all the bad in you
I get hurt, I fall down
I need someone to hold me back from the tunnel, oh
From the tunnel of my love
From the tunnel of my love. The tunnel
The tunnel of my love
From the tunnel of my love
Alright
From the tunnel of my love
