Don't Let Your Man Know

Graham Coxon

Getting Paranoid,heart beating faster
Start to sweat when I see you walk past
Legs are killing and my eyes
Wanna close them but they're open to wide
Pull my hair out, going mad
Have to wait though
I want you so bad
Gotta go now,Oh my God
Call my number , I'll be waiting

Can I see you in the bedroom tonight?
Can I see you on the beach tonight?
Don't let your man know

When can I see you and not your ghost
You're never there when I'm needing you most It's devestating , It's all too much
My minds exploading when I think of your touch
You've got the power over me
I'm only seeing what you want me to see
My heart is racing, I'm falling down
Gonna need resusicitating

Can I see you in the bathroom tonight?
You gonna let me make you feel good tonight
Don't let your man know

Can I see you in the bedroom tonight?
Can I see you on the beach tonight?
Can I see you in the bathroom tonight
Don't let your man know
