Superficial

Credit Cards
I can't leave the house without my lipstick (lipstick on)
It's like a runway show Monroe, yea Marilyn you would be proud, honey you would be Sweet dreams are made of these
And violator playing on repeat
I'll push the petal like a movie scene
I'll be the bad girl
You know that I'll get away baby come catch me cause really I ain't
Superficial (that girl is, that girl is, that girl is)
Superficial (you know it, you know it, you know it)
Think about you all the time
My love is something
Money can't buy
Don't tell me that I'm superficial
He got blackered hair
Got the blackest lashes honey hold that stare
Inside your eyes I could go anywhere
Straight from the alley to your daddies dead honey come on now
Tattoos and motorbikes
Were riding faster in the dead of night

Guess I'm a sucker for the black pearls
We could be timeless
Yea you could be my best friend
Boy your my diamond
Don't tell me that I'm Superficial (that girl is, that girl is, that girl is)
Superficial (you know it, you know it, you know it)
Think about you all the time
My love is something
Money can't buy
Don't tell me that I'm superficial
Love car. Love show

I love beauty, beauty
Love boy. Love both
I love beauty, beauty
Love car. love show
I love beauty, beauty
Love boy. Love both
I love beauty, beauty
Superficial (that girl is, that girl is, that girl is)
Superficial (you know it, you know it, you know it)
Think about you all the time
My love is something
Money can't buy
Don't tell me that I'm superficial
