Someone Who Cares

Three Days Grace

Every street in this city
Is the same to me
Everyone's got a place to be
But there's no room for meAm I to blame when the guilt and the shame
Hang over me
Like a dark cloud that chases you down
In the pouring rainIt's so hard to find someone who Cares about you
But it's easy enough to find someone who Looks down on youWhy is it so hard to find someone
Who cares about you?
When it's easy enough to find someone
Who looks down on youIt's not what it seems when you're not on the scene
There's a chill in the air
But there's people like me that nobody sees
So nobody caresWhy is it so hard to find someone
Who cares about you?
When it's easy enough to find someone
Who looks down on youWhy is it so hard to find someone
Who can keep it together when you've come undone?
Why is it so hard to find someone
Who cares about you?I swear this time it won't turn out the same
'Cause now Ive got myself to blame
And you'll know when we end up on the streets
That it's easy enough to find someone
Who looks down on youWhy is it so hard to find someone
Who cares about you?
When it's easy enough to find someone
Who looks down on youWhy is it so hard to find someone
Who can keep it together when you've come undone?
Why is it so hard to find someone
Who cares about you?
