

Come Again

Damn Yankees

I was a loner crusin' with the wind
I wasn't lookin' when you pulled me in
I had to leave you like I always did
You knew damn well I'd come againNow I'm falling where I've never been My resistance is wearing thin
Somewhere in the distance
Like a long lost friendWhoa, oh, oh, yeah, yeah
Lord, here I come again, come againBeen so long since I've seen you girl
Swear I've been around the world
Every room is an empty space
In the darkness I see your faceWhen I finally get my hands on you
Tell you what I'm gonna do
Lay you down strip you bare
Make love to you till the morning comes aroundI wasn't lookin' when you pulled me in
Whoa, oh, oh, yeah, yeah
Lord, here I come again
Come again, come again, I said, "Lord" I wasn't lookin' when you pulled me in
Whoa, oh, oh, yeah, yeah
Lord, here I come againI wasn't lookin' when you pulled me in
Whoa, oh, oh, yeah, yeah
Lord, here I come again
