Star Scream

?thing a mean or now matter really words my do me tell Please
Just because I rock it doesnt mean that I am made of stone honey
I want to know what you dont want to know, do you know what I mean?
With endless love until the end, heres your knight in shining ArmaniYour heart is held together with safety pins
Time overtakes us, dance, its just 3 minutes
Hijinx turn to spilt drinks, dollface youre legless
Shake soul, sordid, the worst of both worlds againWith endless love until the end, heres your knight in shining
Armani
I want to know what you dont want to know, do you know what I mean?
Just because I rock it doesnt mean that I am made of stone honey
?thing a mean or now matter really words my do me tell PleaseYour heart is held together with safety pins
Time overtakes us, dance, its just 3 minutes
Hijinx turn to spilt drinks, dollface youre legless
Shake soul, sordid, the worst of both worlds againWithin her loveless devotion, fleeting eyes stood still
Blue lips shimmer in the morning dew
A victim no longer, the city endless
Her back alley saviour whose name is nameless
Struggles no longer, resigned to the bliss
Of metal through skin, her god with the fistsYour heart is held together with safety pins
Time overtakes us, dance, its just 3 minutes
Hijinx turn to spilt drinks, dollface youre legless
Shake soul, sordid, the worst of both worlds again
