Love Will Leave a Mark

Red

It's no use to try and suppress
It's always there reminding
One wound that never forgets
Open up and dying
Always alive, always insideAnd no one can say the same
Love always leaves marks
The scars giving all away
Burning your heart
Love will leave a markTwisting , tearing apart
Holding me together
Changing every thought
Hunting me forever
Always insideAnd no one can say the same
Love always leaves marks
The scars giving all away
Burning your heart
Love will leave a markWith every tear and every sound
You sing with the fire that never burns out
Finding a way through the dark
Love will leave a markAnd no one can say the same
Love always leaves marks
The scars giving all away
Burning your heart
Love will leave a markWith every tear and every sound
You sing with the fire that never burns out
Finding a way through the dark
Love will leave a mark
Love will leave a mark
