Emotional Truth

Tom Cochrane

Let the woman have her peace
Let her set the beat
Around the world for emotional truthWaited out here for so long
Wanna let love liberate you
Don't you need emotional truth?I don't want to fake it no more
Comin' in for emotional truth
You don't have to take it no more
Come on home for emotional truthWatch the sun set down on the sea
Set down then rise up again
Sure as that happens we need emotional truth
I've been driving out here for so long
A thin man in the rain
I'm comin' home for your emotional truthI don't want to fake it no more
Comin' in for emotional truth
You don't have to take it no more
Let me in for emotional truthOh my soul, my love
There's so many things, I haven't told you
Oh my soul, my love
Let me show youEmotional truthI've seen her out there for so long
Like a ghost standing by the roadside
Reaching out for emotional truthI don't want to fake it no more
Comin' in for emotional truth
You don't have to take it no more
Come on home for emotional truthEmotional truth
Emotional truth
Emotional truth
