That Damn I Didn't Give

Waterloo Revival

I said leave them, here's your keys if your done with me girl you'll need em, and I thought I believed you because in that moment I was scared just a little to proud to show it didn't know id thrown it all away untill seeing you and him talking laughing sparkle back in your eyes girl your acting like you ain't got a care in the world and than all of a sudden my choice was chosen befor I know the words are falling off of my lips oh man there it is that damn I didn't give yeah I'd forgotten how soft your lips were till I saw em kissing some body else to think I had ya and let you walk away cause I got mad yeah but girl it didn't matter until seeing you and him talking laughing sparkle back in your eyes girl your acting like you ain't got a care in the world and than all of a sudden my choice was chosen before i know the words are falling off my lips oh man there it is that damn I didn't give yeah I said leave it here's your keys if your done with me girl you'll need em and I thought I belived it damn until seeing you and him talking laughing sparkle back in your eyes girl your acting like you ain't got a care in the world and than all of a sudden my choice was chosen before I know the words are falling off my lips oh man there it is that damn I didn't give ohhhhhh that damn I didn't give

Lyrics Submitted by Jonathan beasley

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/