No Consequences

J-Zone

Everywhere I go no one says no to me
They don't, they don't dare
Everything I want to feel
The good, the bad, always indifferent
Be my muse before I walk all over you
To get to the next one
You were fascinated like a fool
And I lazily killed you
You're calling me insatiable and I can't deny
On the hunt for the irreplaceable
Impossible to find
Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best
I want you along with the rest
I want the world with no consequences
Drink it up and be so mad and wild
Along with me till the ending
Pray to set you free
'Cause I'll give you the hurt they gave it to me
You're calling me insatiable and I can't deny
On the hunt for the irreplaceable

Impossible to find
Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best
I want you along with the rest
I want the world with no consequences
Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best
I want you along with the rest
I want the world with no consequences
Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best
I want you along with the rest
I want the world with no consequences
(Everywhere I go no one says no to me
They don't, they don't dare
Everything I want to feel
The good, the bad, always indifferent)

Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best
I want you along with the rest
I want the world with no consequences
