

Lithium

Thin White Rope

You call and all I do is fall until you call again
You get so happy when it rains, I wish you wouldn't change

I'm not proud how I drag you down

Your men from Petersburg and Prague, they seem to have you scared
You shouldn't be running to the corner just because I'm there

I need lithium and you, you make me feel the same
Some reaction in my blood puts bubbles in my brain

---

Lyrics submitted by Josh Mostek.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>