

All These Dreams

Andrew Combs

Well I'm sorry
No I didn't mean to wake you up
Lord knows it's late enough
I shouldn't be calling
But I'd be lying if I told you that I'm alright
Throwing punches into the night
Honey I'm falling With all these dreams
All these dreams
They got me talking in my sleep
They got me wondering where you are
Where you are tonight
Got no reason oh baby to doubt your love
But maybe I've had enough
So forgive me for asking one more time again It's just these dreams
All these dreams
They got me talking in my sleep
They got me wondering if you're all
If you're all alone You've been nothing to me but kind
So kind
Oh I just can't turn off my mind sometimes
Oh sometimes
All these dreams
All these dreams
They got me talking in my sleep
They got me wondering if you're all
If you're all alone
If you're all alone
