The Blessing Is Yours

Deon Kipping

You can't see the shape of the ghost in your mind Why does everything you try to do never turn alright you rowe down your vision and you made a prey but before the ingrid everything was erase opportunities in usbut you won't enter dawn has been eating away at your face just like the cancer all hope is lost, but it can be found look to the hill and ignore the clouds Because you can recover, recover it all the hurt from the fall, but you can get up you can recover, recover it all you think you lost but the blessing is yoursYou've been in this place for far to long, cus your scared if you move something else would go wrong you pray to the Lord for help to believe but moving the mountain seems to hard to achieve opportunities in usbut you won't enter dawn has been eating away at your face just like the cancer all hope is lost but it can be found look to the hill and ignore the clouds// you can recover, recover it all the hurt from the fall but you can get up, you can recover, recover it all you think you lost but the blessing is yours//// It's yours, The Blessing is yours//
